

clothing &c taken out of the larger trunk when it was opened at Oakes'.-- He knew that Mrs Hasty never had a tasselled found & described to him dress--such as I ~~described~~ but he saw such a one on the voyage--in Margaret's trunks--2 of which were often open before him.

He said that the cook was the only American among the crew--& he was "wild" i.e. intoxicated most of the time. The rest were very steady.

a swede

Account of John Helstrom ^ carpenter last 2nd mate--Davis interpreting

Paulina

The Ossolis--^cook--steward--~~Paulina~~ & (himself (& westervelt? too?) ~~probably~~) Sandford^ were in the forecandle till the forecandle commenced breaking up which was a few minutes before the foremast fell. ~~Then~~ they all He left the forecandle immediately. ~~The carpenter~~ & Sandford went up the fore mast ~~then~~ which of course was somewhat slanted over the water--
     he then the cook & Ossolis--~~the carpenter~~ & sandford helping the latter ~~lifted~~ up & The steward &] -- got up with the child in his arms its legs got] went At the & arms sticking out-- ^Same time Sandford [had] Paulina on the forerigging-- When ~~they~~ W] w Paolina

he & Sandford helped ~~her~~ up--she being first mad Ossoli was standing behind her nex to the mast--^but when they turned for her