

mast was standing the midmast was off at the top--the main mast cut every sea broke over all. The tide was falling when he got there it had up to the sand hills off short. ^ The sailors kept shouting been ove the whole beach ^ & came over again afterward to him & he to them in vain--he motioning toward Oakes'--that he would go there. ~~There were many~~ Most of the sailors already & passengers effects had ^ come ashore. There were "many chests all stove open, broke with open, and some ^ of their locks prized off."

They looked & his companion found a fresh wagon track & a mans track & fresh horse dung--leading at last toward Oakes'.

Oakes was mad with him for what he had said. When he got to the house

Mr & Mrs Oakes were not to be found at once. Oakes had two men one of whom told Wood, after he had pointed out the vessel to him, that he had seen ~~the~~ her ~~sh~~ 2 or three hours before & thought that she was sailing under bare poles at which Wood laughed at him & oakes said

"You damn fool you shut your jaws you know nothing about it.” The first man came ashore while he was at oakes’ and had a life-preserver on. one or two more preservers washed ashore afterward. [-] ~~he did not know what they were.~~ The sailors exclaimed--“My trunks, chests, all poor sailors things ~~broken open~~ robbed, broken open & gone”. himself

He ^ had a rope round his body & stood in the surf
